

Mock Study Section Requirements (R)

Note to Applicants:

Please review the eligibility and participation requirements carefully. The mission of Frontiers is to improve the translational research process by connecting CTR scientists to resources and training. Basic science and pre-clinical research is not reviewed under the mock study section program. Please review the NIH definition of clinical and translational research to ensure your project is eligible.

NIH Research Grants (R Series) Application Sections

Items marked with a star () are required for participation*

1. Cover Letter
2. Project Summary/Abstract
3. Project Narrative - Relevance Statement
4. Facilities & Resources
5. Equipment
6. Research Plan
 - i. Specific Aims
 - ii. Research Strategy

Please note NIH requirements for Rigor and Reproducibility

 - a. Significance
 - b. Innovation
 - c. Approach
 - iii. References Cited and Bibliography/Progress Report Publication List
 - iv. Vertebrate Animals
 - v. Select Agent Research
 - vi. Multiple PD/PI Leadership Plan
 - vii. Consortium/Contractual Agreements
 - viii. Letters of Support
 - ix. Resource Sharing Plan(s)
 - x. Authentication of Key Biological and/or Chemical Resources
 - xi. Appendix
 - xii. Human Subjects and Clinical Trials Information
 - xiii. Inclusion of Women and Minorities
 - xiv. Planned Enrollment Report
 - xv. Inclusion of Children
7. Biosketch